

SUMMER BY THE WEEK! Camper Code of Conduct

Camper Name: _____

Week Attending: _____

I understand I play an important role in the enjoyment of every camper at camp. My attitude and behavior are critical to my success and to others' success at camp this summer. Therefore, for the good of all- other campers and staff, I agree to abide by the following while at Vivian Olum Child Development Center or on a trip with Summer by the Week:

- I will respect the places and the people with whom I come into contact, including their privacy and property.
- I will be responsive to the needs of others in my group.
- I will act and speak positively and kindly to all campers and staff (i.e., no lewd jokes, inappropriate language, slurs, etc.)
- I will be responsible for my personal belongings and equipment. VOCDC is not responsible for items I have lost or given away to other campers.
- I will leave toys at home unless they match the week's theme and I have permission from a teacher to bring it.
- I understand that social cruelty (bullying, teasing, put-downs) and physical violence (hitting, fighting, restraining) will not be tolerated.
- I understand that if I am the victim of social cruelty or violent behavior I should seek help immediately from a teacher to make sure that I am physically and emotionally safe at camp.
- I understand that if I do not abide by the guidelines above, a teacher will notify my parents/guardians and we will make a plan to correct the behavior. Repeated instances of not following the guidelines may result in being sent home or being unable to attend camp in the future.
